The "Uttar Banga Krishi Viswavidyalaya" (www.ubkv.ac.in) was established by West Bengal Act XX of 2000 and started functioning from 1st February, 2001. The Head Quarter is situated at Pundibari, a rural block in the district of Cooch Behar (with 43mMSL) which is 13KM away from the district head-quarters. The University offers undergraduate courses in Agriculture Horticulture and Technology (Agril. Engineering); postgraduate courses in Agriculture and Horticulture in Agriculture, Horticulture and Forestry. The nearest railway station is New Cooch Behar, which lies in between Kolkata and Guwahati train route. It is 15KM from Pundibari and 4KM from Cooch Behar town. It is situated by the side of the national highway (Nh31) which leads from Cooch Behar to Siliguri. The nearest airport is Bagdogra which is 150 KM away from the University Head Quarters.

About Cooch Behar District

Cooch Behar district is located in the northeastern part of West Bengal bordering Assam and Bangladesh. Cooch Behar town, the head quarter of the district which is mainly famous for the Kochbihar Palace, noted for its elegance and grandeur. Idealized from the concept of classical European style of Italian Renaissance, this magnificent palace was built by the famous Koch king Maharaja Nripendra Narayan in 1887. Another attraction is the Madan Mohan Temple situated in the heart of the Cooch Behar town; constructed by Maharaja Nripendra Narayan during 1885 to 1889. Sagardighi, the huge tank situated in the middle of Cooch Behar Town is also at our list attraction. It is a popular rendezvous in the evening surrounded by heritage buildings. Rasikbil, Kholta Ecotourism Spot, Rajpat Mound, Chilapata Reserve Forest, Gorumara National Park and Jaldapara Wildlife Sanctuary are popular tourist destinations nearby and can be visited within a day from Cooch Behar. Doars, Bhutan, Darjeeling or Gangtok can also be approached from here requiring three days.
