NOTIFICATION

The University administration, of late, has been receiving representation from a section of student regarding conduction of end term examination. Upon careful consideration of the concern raised by those students vis-à-vis academic progression of the students, the Competent Authority of the University hereby decides to continue with the method of evaluation as notified by the Deputy Registrar previously. Unfortunate illness of students related to COVID-19 infection during the period of examination shall be given due consideration as per extant rule in this regard. The Competent Authority also instructed all the Deans to ensure timely completion of final year examination of both UG and PG.

This is for information to all concerned students.

By order of the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor
